ELBA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PRESIDENT Butch Oggs presents McGuff "Take A Bite Out of Crime" coloring books to Elba Elementary School principal Dale Crowe, and Chamber executive director Gene Kennett presents the McGuff "Crime Dog" doll. The coloring books are designed to teach children the basic rules of being safe and smart by not opening doors to strangers, staying out of lonely places, not getting in cars with strangers, staying with friends and telling their parents if there is something that scares them.

Assailant turns gun on self

Labor Day shooting leaves Elba woman dead

A domestic disturbance at an Elba residence on Monday night, Sept. 4, apparently resulted in a shooting that left one dead and another in critical condition.

According to Elba Police Chief Freddie Hanchey, Elba police were called to a domestic disturbance at 811 Kennedy Estates, at approximately 8:55 p.m., on Monday night.

While at the location, Randy Walton, age 22, took a service weapon from an Elba officer and fatally shot Janet Lockett, age 27, before turning the gun on himself.

Both Lockett and Walton were taken to the Elba General Hospital, where Lockett later died and Walton was transferred to a Dothan hospital.

According to police, Lockett and Walton were living together at Elba Villas and were at the home of Lockett's parents when the shooting occurred. An autopsy was ordered on the deceased and was pending at press time Tuesday, while Walton's condition was upgraded Tuesday to stable, but guarded.

The victim was reportedly shot twice in the head and Walton shot himself in the back of the head.

Foster homes needed in Coffee County

The Coffee County Department of Human Resources has released its monthly report and in the bulletin, county director Ronald Smith stated the agency "continues to be in need of resources!"

Foster homes for children and adults continue to be in great demand," stated Smith, "and we do not have enough of these resources. Anyone who is interested should contact Lin Rowe at 897-3424 as soon as possible."

Smith added that the Enterprise Christian Mission and churches throughout Coffee County were being helpful in getting necessary food for clients and paying utility bills for those in need.

"We appreciate the support of these resources as well as the support of the agencies in Coffee County. We could not do our job without their support."

Children's Services supervisor Myrna Rhoades reported that her office had investigated a total of 26 child abuse reports during the past month, with the nature of the reports being physical (8), sexual (8) and neglect (10).

Adult cases investigated included two involving neglect and one for exploitation. Mrs. Rhoades reported that June was a "busy month in court" for her foster care workers and also reported that during the month eight foster children attended an Independent Living Teen Conference, in Troy.

The conference dealt with teaching living skills to the foster children ages 16-18.

Child Protective Services & Adult Services supervisor Glenda Snipes stated that "June was a difficult and busy month."

Mrs. Snipes reported that twenty new cases were opened during the month and that these cases were added to the caseload of the social workers.

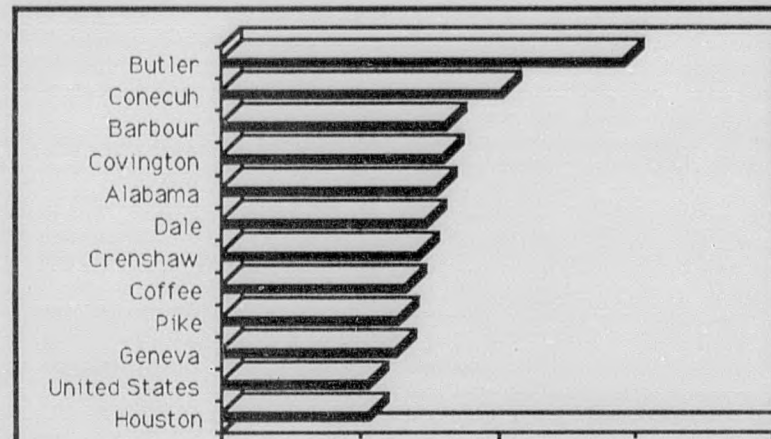

"The social workers already are carrying more cases than the suggested caseload recommendation," stated Snipes, "and it seems that there are more and more caseload activities required of the social worker each month."

Food Stamp Program supervisor Debbie Jones reported that in June her office issued stamps to a total of 1,150 households in the county, with the value of the stamps being $59,700.

Eligibility and Child Support Unit supervisor Dianne Parker reported that some of the results of the income tax interception of Aid to Dependent Children overpayments had been seen.

A total of $176.63 was received through the program during the past month.

UNEMPLOYMENT DATA
AUGUST 1989

Unemployment rate rises to 6.7 percent in Coffee County

The Alabama Department of Industrial Relations has released its monthly "Labor Market News" for the month of August and in the report it was revealed that the unemployment rate in Coffee County in the month of July increased to 6.7 percent.

According to the detailed report, Coffee County had a civilian labor work force of 18,860 in July, of which 1,260 were without jobs.

The 6.7 percent unemployment rate is above the rate of 5.9 percent in June, but below the state average of 7.8 percent.

Following are surrounding counties and their unemployment rates:

Coffee County Commission gets approval to construct new county jail in New Brockton

The Coffee County Commission received the "go-ahead" from a federal magistrate last week and apparently will proceed with its plans to construct a new county jail in New Brockton.

The meeting, ordered by United States Magistrate John Carroll, to hear the county's progress report on plans to alleviate overcrowded conditions at the county jail, in Elba, was attended by six members of the commission, as well as the county attorney and attorneys for the plaintiffs in a lawsuit filed against the county.

"He told us to proceed with the plans we have and to go forward with what we are doing," stated Commission Chairman Billy Eagerton. "He was satisfied with what we are doing, and right now, as far as I'm concerned, we're going to build a county jail in New Brockton."

"We were waiting until this meeting to proceed with our plans," added Eagerton, "and now we know what the magistrate wants."

The commission has adopted a one-half cent sales tax to pay for the construction of the new jail. A tax that, according to Eagerton, will be removed as soon as the construction of the jail is paid off.

Sleeping sickness discovered in horse in Coffee County

Cases of Eastern Equine Encephalomyelitis (sleeping sickness) have been reported in Coffee, Butler, Lamar, and Houston Counties, said state veterinarian Dr. J. Lee Alley, director of the Alabama Department of Agriculture and Industries' Animal Industries Division.

Eastern Equine Encephalomyelitis is a viral disease of horses spread by biting insects, primarily mosquitoes. The mortality rate of horses infected with this disease is more than 90 percent.

Symptoms include fever, wandering, circling, incoordination, yawning, grinding of teeth, drooping, pendulous lower lip, inability to swallow, inability to rise when down, and paralysis.

Diagnosis is based on clinical signs, history and season of occurrence. Specific diagnosis is by recovery of the virus from brain tissue and serotyping.

While there is no specific treatment for the disease, there is an effective vaccine.

"I strongly recommend that all horse owners contact their local veterinarian to have their animals vaccinated," said Alley. "This is a preventable disease."

For further information, horse owners are advised to contact their local veterinarian or to call the state Animal Industry Division at 205/242-2647, or through the Department Hotline at 1-800-321-0018.

Opp man struck by car in Elba

An employee of Dorsey Trailers was critically injured last week when he was struck by a car as he crossed a street in front of the plant, located on Hickman Avenue.

According to Elba police reports, Warren Randall Grimes, age 30, of Rt. 3, Opp, was crossing Hickman Avenue at approximately 5:23 a.m., going to work when he was struck by a car driven by Gerald Rex Free, age 25, of Rt. 3, Elba.

Grimes was apparently struck by the right front of the 1985 Cavalier and after impact hit the windshield of the vehicle.

Grimes is in a Dothan hospital and this week was transferred from Intensive Care to a private room.

Summer heat may cause problems for mobile home owners

Summer heat and humidity can make for a significant increase in health problems related to formaldehyde found in mobile homes and new homes, warns Gary W. Jones, chief of the Indoor Air Quality Section of the Alabama Department of Public Health.

"Formaldehyde creates the odor that most people refer to as the 'new smell' in products," says Jones. "It's used in the glues, resins and veneers that go into carpet backing, particle board, fiberboard, hardwood, plywood and some solid wood furniture."

The gas is a potent eye, upper respiratory and skin irritant that produces allergy-like symptoms and has the potential for causing asthma and inducing asthmatic attacks as a non-specific irritant.

"We receive more complaints about formaldehyde in the summer because the heat and humidity drive the gas out of materials," reports Jones.

"For some people, especially in mobile homes where levels of the gas are sometimes quite high, forthose concerned about the level of the gas in their residence may wish to contact the health department to conduct an air test in their home. For more information on formaldehyde, asbestos or other indoor air quality problems, contact the Indoor Air Quality Section, Division of Environmental Health, 434 Monroe Street, Room 251, Montgomery, Ala. 36130-1701, 261-5007.

maldehyde can be a very serious problem. There are cases in which reactions to the gas have been so severe, particularly in asthmatic children, that people have had to move. Since there are such a large number of mobile homes in Alabama, this is an environmental health problem that affects a great many people."

Signs that health problems may be caused by formaldehyde include symptoms occurring in more than one member of the household and symptoms that lessen in severity when the individual is away from home. Symptoms are usually the most severe in those who spend a great deal of time at home, such as homemakers, infants and retirees.

Jones says formaldehyde levels may be decreased by opening the windows and airing out a residence over a period of weeks. Vapor-barrier paints can also be used in some cases, although this is a temporary solution.

No formaldehyde level standards have been established for a non-occupational ational setting, so

Vandals paint traffic signs in Elba recently

Elba Police Chief Freddie Hanchey reported this week that the department had been plagued with reports of vandalized road signs within the city.

Chief Hanchey stated that the signs had been painted and encouraged anyone seeing anyone damaging signs to contact the Elba Police Department immediately.

TELLING IT LIKE IT IS... Former Elba mayor Bob Folsom paid visits to the Coffee County Commission and Elba City Council last Monday to voice his opinions on several matters now facing the two governing bodies. Folsom presented his views to the commission on their plans to construct a new county jail in New Brockton and questioned the city council about the progress made at the Elba Hydro-Dam.

SOCIAL NOTES

Sanders-Smith Wedding

Kimberly Ann Smith of New Brockton and Kellon Von Sanders of Enterprise were married at seven o'clock in the evening on July 15, at First Baptist Church of New Brockton.

Rev. Mack King performed the ceremony.

Nuptial music was presented by pianist Lee Miller. Dewayne Bowman sang "Household of Faith," and Carmen Bruce sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Wedding Song."

The wedding setting was of a garden effect consisting of a white archway decorated with bells, greenery, bows and fresh flowers.

White pots of chrysanthemums and baskets of fresh ferns were placed around the archway.

Hurricane globes with white candles sat in the windows, decorated with sprigged greenery and white bows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Willie Earl Smith. She wore a gown of white satin. Silk floss embroidery, motifs shaped the Sabrina neckline of the English net yoke.

Hand-placed seed pearls and out pearls highlighted the embroidery on the fitted bodice and on the Renaissance sleeves. Seed pearls were scattered in the crushed satin sleeves at the shoulders.

Embroidered motifs, draped with tiny pearl strands on organza, created a cutwork effect on the skirt and cathedral-length train. A ripple-edged ruffle finished the hemline and swept around the train of crimped satin.

Her waist-length veil of silk illusion flowed from a standing illusion pouf at the back of the head of pearl loops, silk flowers and pearl peps.

The bride carried a cascade tear-drop starburst bouquet consisting of two dozen white bridal roses, pearls, and baby's breath, and a sprig of greenery completing the bouquet.

The maid of honor was Suzanne Lassiter.

Bridesmaids were Tracey Bolland and Carmen Bruce.

Each attendant carried a Colonial bouquet of fresh flowers including Sonya roses, white pinc carnations, baby's breath, and white daisies interspersed with ivy.

Flowers girls were Kari Sims and Amanda Sanders. Each carried a basket of fresh daisies and baby's breath.

Rhett Sanders served the groom.

Mrs. Sanders

as best man.

Groomsmen were Tommy Johnson Jr. and Max Baxley.

Ushers were Michael Smith and Tom Sims.

Candlelighters were Michael Smith, brother of the bride, and Tom Sims, her cousin.

Ringbearer was Kellon Vincent Sanders Jr.

European American Art Company, Inc. of Bohemia, N. Y., will conduct the event, with proceeds going to the Wives' Club Scholarship and Welfare Fund.

On Saturday, October 28, a preview will be held at 7:00 p.m. with the auction beginning at 8:00 p.m. A stand-up sale will be held Sunday, October 29, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Mastercard, Visa and American Express will be accepted, with layaway also being available.

For additional information, contact Charmaine Carter at 347-4380.

Brunson - Hall Wedding

Stephanie Jo Hall and Charles Matthew Brunson were united in marriage Saturday, June 24, at the First Methodist Church in Enterprise.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Walter J. Ellis and Reverend George Sedberry.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald T. Cooper of Enterprise and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby M. Hall of Ozark.

The groom is the son of Judge and Mrs. Marion B. Brunson.

Pew markers of greenery and ribbon outlined the center aisle of the church leading to the altar which was flanked by arched canopies entwined with ribbons and foliage. Two large white floral arrangements against a background of palms completed the decorations.

The musical prelude was performed by Ms. Pam Baker, organist, from Elba. Soloist Scott Jones, accompanied by pianist Carmine Goodwin, sang "Love Will Be Our Home" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Musical for the processional was "Trumpet Voluntary" and was performed by trumpeters Scott Robertson, Lee Markum, Pauline Holle, and Pam Baker, organist.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a wedding gown designed by Mendicini.

The gown was appliqued with lace and accented with pearls and iridescent. The hemline was edged with scalloped lace.

Her veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara of silk accented with bride pearls.

The bride carried a cascading bouquet of white orchids and calla lilies.

To complete her wedding attire, the bride wore a string of pearls belonging to the groom's family.

The pearls had been worn by the groom's grandmother and mother at their weddings.

A linen shower was held on June 30 at the home of Mrs. Ed Tucker of Elba. Others assisting were Mrs. Tackler included, Mrs. Carol Marler, Mrs. Wayne Marler, Mrs. Paul Stroud, and Mrs. James Grimes.

A miscellaneous bridal tea was held on July 2 in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church in Elba. Hostesses for the event included a number of Elba friends.

On June 16 a Handyman party was held honoring Matt. The event was hosted by Betty Brunson, Dee Brunson, Becky Hayes, Pat Clark, Caroline and Kim Kelley, and Barbara Hudson.

The party was held at the pavilion at the National Security lake and attended by friends of the bride.

The attendants were peach tea length of lace and a scalloped hemline. The dropped waist was accented with a center brooch. The attendants carried arrangements of calla lilies.

Miss Nicole Carlisle of Daleville, niece of the bride, served as flower girl. She wore a formal gown of peach silk and a headpiece of peach roses created for her by Mrs. Clifford Burns of Daleville.

Master Nicolas Carlisle, nephew of the bride, served as ringbearer.

Judge Brunson served as his son's best man. Groomsmen included Bailey Brunson, brother of the groom, and Dowd Clark, all of Elba.

Ushers included Mark Wisser of Atlanta, uncle of the bride, and Scott Hall, brother of the bride.

The mother of the bride chose for her daughter's wedding a tea length ecru lace suit. The suit was adorned with pearl studs and iridescent.

The groom's mother wore a tea length rose chiffon dress accented at the waist, neck and sleeves with crystal beading.

RECEPTION
A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. The reception was directed by the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Wisser of Daleville.

The hall was decorated with candles, greenery, and fresh fruit of the season. The buffet tables were adorned with floral arrangements of the bride's colors.

Both the bride's cake and the groom's cake were designed and prepared by Mrs. Charles Beber of Enterprise. The wedding cake was decorated with fresh flowers while the traditional groom's cake featured fruit.

The bride's cake was served by Mrs. Clifford Burns and Mrs. David Carlisle. The groom's cake was served by Mrs. James Edwards and Mrs. Bobby Hammond, aunts of the groom.

Following a honeymoon in Florida, the couple is living in Elba for the summer. They plan to move to Mobile in the fall to continue their studies at the University of South Alabama.

Pre Nuptial Parties
The wedding party, relatives, and friends were entertained at an after-rehearsal dinner at the home of Judge and Mrs. Brunson, parents of the groom, on the night of June 23.

Marion and Nancy greeted their guests at the entrance to the pool area. A barbecue buffet with trimmings was served to the guests seated at tables around the pool. Colored balloons and ribbons decorated the tables. A floating floral arrangement of daisies and greenery decorated the pool.

A bridesmaids luncheon was hosted by Mrs. David Carlisle, aunt of the bride, on June 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunson

A groomsmen's brunch was held on June 24 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harper. Assisting as host were Mr. Fred Harper.

On the evening of June 20, Mrs. John Fuller entertained in her home with a miscellaneous shower. Hostesses included Mrs. Edward Czap and Mrs. Albert Smiley.

A linen shower was held on June 30 at the home of Mrs. Ed Tucker of Elba. Others assisting were Mrs. Tackler included, Mrs. Carol Marler, Mrs. Wayne Marler, Mrs. Paul Stroud, and Mrs. James Grimes.

Seniors Of

Cordelia St. Meet

By: Wanda Sasser

It was a typical summer day when the Senior Citizens of Cordelia St. met for their weekly meeting on August 31 at the HRDC Building on Simmons Street.

We still had some of our members who were on the list and imagine the hot weather has kept some of the members from venturing out.

Many of the members played dominoes and visited. We all got caught up with the news. We are hoping to have a big time next week with music and singing and people of all ages and walks of life. This was one of our sandwich days and the table was loaded with a variety, also there was plenty of sweets.

Those attending were: Frances Shaboo, Myrl Burkett, Bonnie Wesley, Texie Farris, Dixie Mae Maddox, Mattie Lou Goodson, Helen McCallan, Arthur Blackmon, Lex Blackmon, Iris McDowell, Aileen English, Sarah Smith, Frank and Lennie McCollough, Arnold Amenda, M. Boling.

NOTE OF THANKS

The family of the late Mr. Ardis Williams wishes to thank everyone for all the deeds of kindness during illness, and passing of our loved one. Your calls, cards, food, flowers, visits, and prayers have helped us to realize that God is forever near. May He richly bless each of you in your prayer.

LARRY DOSTER

NEW HAVEN BAPTIST CHURCH

In Luke 18:1, Jesus is talking about a way to avoid losing heart or courage. That is what he meant by the word "faith." He had in mind a person in a difficult situation who needs help and does not hesitate to ship to his knees to avoid "going under."

In verses 1-8 of this same chapter, the distressed widow makes this clear. Rather than allowing her adversary to get his way, she pleaded with the proper authority until he intervened in her behalf. She was just weak enough to know that unless he came to her aid she would faint.

That's a hard lesson to learn, as illustrated by the experience of 6 year old Ben. Like the woman in Jesus' story, he too had an adversary - only his was on the playground. According to Ben, the other fellow had gone too far, and he thought the only solution to the problem was to fight it out. So his dad talked with him about "the Christian way" of handling the situation. His dad asked him, "Did you pray to the Lord for understanding and help to avoid the fight?" Little Ben did not answer. His dad asked him again. This time with childish candor he blurted out, "No, I didn't want to pray. I'd rather beat him up." How revealing! He didn't really feel weak enough to seek God's help.

Too often we hesitate to pray for the Lord's wisdom and guidance in a tough situation because we think we can work it out ourselves. I guess it's just evidence that we think we know what is best and we do get into trouble. God will come to our assistance. He wants us to sense that we really are helpless. When it comes right down to it, we must realize that unless we pray we will faint.

Sign Up For Scouts At School Night For Scouting

"School Night for Scouting" will be held Tuesday evening, Sept. 12, at 7 o'clock at the Elba Elementary School.

Keeping Nutrients In Vegetables

Vegetables, whether fresh, canned or frozen, provide a year-round source of vitamins C and A. They also provide several valuable minerals, especially calcium and iron.

To conserve food values and flavor, you need to store vegetables with care. These storage reminders should help.

"Cabbage is a more stable source of Vitamin C than most leafy vegetables. Don't allow it to dry out. If you're going to keep cabbage a few days, wrap it in the vegetable crisper of the refrigerator.

"Green peas and green lima beans hold their nutrients better if left in their pod until you are ready to use them. If they're shelled, put them into plastic bags and store in the refrigerator.

"Tomatoes bought or picked before they turn red keep their nutrients best if ripened away from the sun, at temperature from 60 to 75 degrees F. Cover under-ripe tomatoes with cloth and leave them at room temperature.

The bright-red color does not develop when tomatoes are left at temperatures above 85 degrees for very long. And if ripened in the refrigerator, tomatoes become soft, watery, and subject to decay.

"Carrots, sweet potatoes, potatoes and other roots and tubers keep their most important food values reasonably well if you keep them cool and moist enough to prevent wilting.

For more details about proper storage and handling of foods, call the Coffee County Extension Office at 894-5596.

Finally, throw away any outdated medications.

Medicine Misuse By Older Adults
People older than 60 make up 16 percent of the American population, but they consume 39 percent of the medications sold in the U. S. Older adults tend to suffer more from long-term illnesses simply because of their age, so they have a greater need for medications.

However, many older adults misuse medications. Following these simple guidelines can help avoid the tragedy of an accidental overdose.

"Take the exact amount of medicine prescribed by your doctor, and stick to the prescribed schedule. Never take drugs prescribed for someone else.

"If your doctor prescribes a new medication, be sure to tell him about any other drugs you're taking.

"If a child-resistant container is difficult for you to open, ask your pharmacist to use easy-to-open containers. But, be sure that medicines are locked out of reach of children.

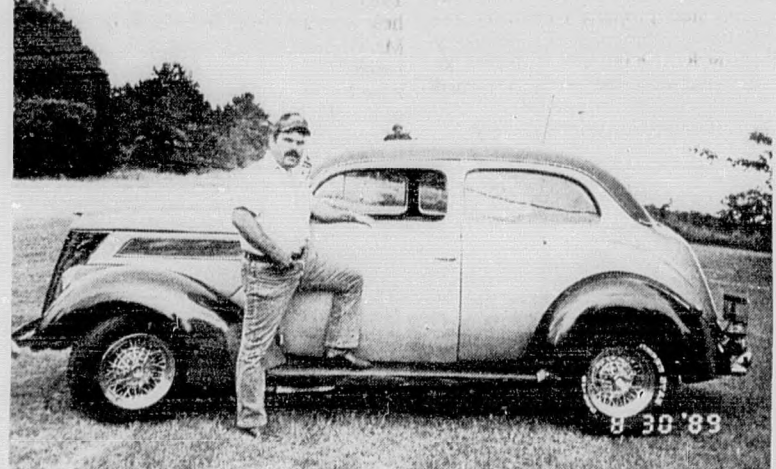

"Make sure you understand the directions printed on the drug container. When you start taking a new medication, ask the doctor or pharmacist about any possible side effects and whether it is necessary to avoid certain foods or beverages.

"Call your doctor immediately if you experience any unusual reactions to medications.

"Don't take medicine in the dark or dim light, where you could take the wrong thing by accident.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Zoning Board will hold a public meeting on Thursday, September 14, 1989, at 5:30 p.m. at Elba City Hall to hear a request from Mickey McCollough, Mr. McCollough is requesting that his property located on Smith Avenue be changed from an R-1 to R-4. The land in consideration is 1300 feet frontage and 100 feet deep on the east side of Highway 125, north of line joining the S.R. McCollough property and south of Herman Driggers Drive.

"COLLEGE DAYS FOR RETIRED PERSONS" is in progress at Enterprise State Junior College (Sept. 7 and 8) and one of the activities will include an antique car exhibition presented by the Elba Antique Car Club. Pictured with his 1937 Ford Sedan is Ricky Carlisle of Elba. The event is sponsored by ESJC and the Coffee County Extension Service.

Mrs. Pair To Head St. Jude Campaign

Mrs. Bernadette Pair will coordinate the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital "Wheels for Life" Bike-A-Thon in New Brockton on Sept. 30.

The bike-a-thon will be held in the New Brockton High School parking lot and will begin at 9 a.m.

T-shirts will be given and prizes awarded.

For more information about participation in the event, call Mrs. Pair at 894-6175 or Betty Baggett at 393-2705.

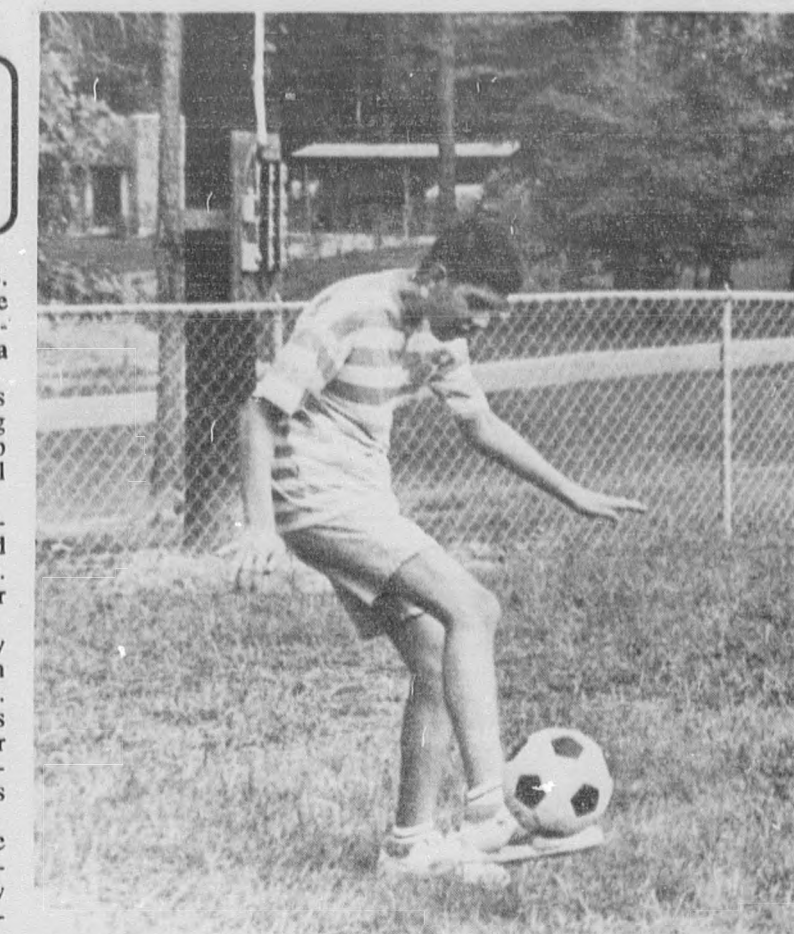

The Bike-A-Thon program this year is dedicated to Ellen Marie Haynes from Rossville, Ga. The 5-year-old developed a malignant tumor in her abdomen in June, 1986.

After treatment at St. Jude's, which consisted of surgery, radiation, and chemotherapy, Ellen Marie was taken off all therapy in January, 1987, and it is reported that although she isn't cured of the cancer yet, her prognosis is good.

Founded by Danny Thomas in 1962, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital is the largest childhood cancer research-treatment-education center in America.

It is non-sectarian, interracial and provides medical care for over 3200 active patients.

Currently, over $183,000 is needed each day to keep the doors open. These funds come primarily from public contributions.

Elba Student Enjoys Camp ASCCA This Summer

Special To The Elba Clipper

Daniel Gullion of Elba joined campers from all over Alabama and surrounding states for the August 20 - 25 session at Camp ASCCA, Alabama's Special Camp for Children and Adults.

Ball park lights, a play-by-play announcer, cheering sections and a vendor yelling "Get your fresh popped popcorn here!" made an authentic sports atmosphere for Camp ASCCA campers during the week.

A kickball championship was the highlight of their visit. The campers were divided into two teams with counselors and program staff serving as coaches and fans.

The kickball championship was just one of the fun evening programs the campers enjoyed throughout the week.

ASCCA offers its campers experiences they can't get anywhere else. It has been ASCCA's goal since the camp's creation in 1976 to put "ability" into disability.

The ASCCA camping program emphasizes what campers can do, not what they can't. Campers gain self-esteem and confidence that often carries over into everyday life, improving skills not camp-related.

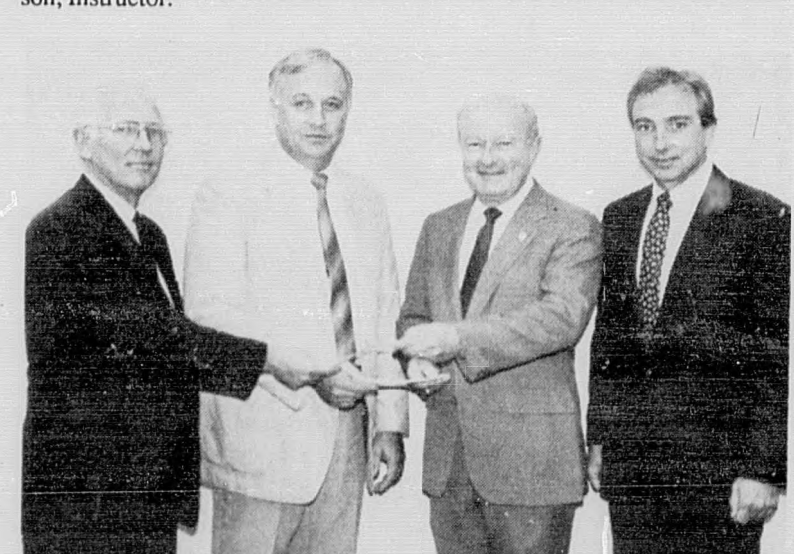

The campers spend their week at camp participating in activities such as whitewater canoeing, mountain climbing, rappelling, camping out in the wilderness and horseshoe riding.

Daniel said he enjoys horseshoe riding, fishing and creating during the arts and crafts program, best of all the activities.

Most of ASCCA's summer counselors are college students from Alabama and surrounding states. The students are referred to as "paid volunteers" because they earn $100 a week, plus room and board, for their around-the-clock responsibility.

Camp ASCCA, a United Way agency, is an Easter Seal facility supported by many generous benefactors.

THE 24TH ANNUAL TROY STATE UNIVERSITY BAND AND CAMP DIRECTORS' CLINIC was held on the TSU main campus July 23-28. More than 500 high school band students from across the southeast United States attended this year's clinic. Students from Zion Chapel High School, Jack, AL, received instruction in all areas of marching band techniques including music, marching, majorette and color guard instruction and percussion ensemble work. The camp, which is one of the largest in the United States, is under the direction of Dr. John M. Long, Dean of the TSU College of Arts and Sciences and the School of Fine Arts and is Director of Bands at TSU. Those attending were: from left to right: Ralph Ford, Camp Coordinator, Dr. John Long, Director, Aimee Routzong, Jennifer Flowers, Camille Haynes, Pamela Evans, Stacey Block and John Williamson, instructor.

LEGAL NOTICES

ORDINANCE NO. 1989-1 PROVIDING FOR NON-DISCRIMINATION IN THE AREA OF HOUSING

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of Elba, Alabama, as follows:

Section 1: Declaration of Policy - It is hereby declared to be the policy of the City of Elba that all persons shall have a fair and equal opportunity to purchase, own, lease, or occupy real estate located within the City of Elba without discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin.

Section 2: Definitions - For the purpose of this ordinance and the interpretation and enforcement thereof the following definitions apply: "Agent" shall mean any real estate broker, real estate salesman, and any other person or entity who is acting for some other person or entity within the relationship of principal and agent.

"Discriminate" shall mean to categorically distinguish between persons on a basis or by reason of race, color, religion, sex, age or national origin.

"Owner" shall mean any persons holding legal or equitable title to or an interest in real estate located within the City of Elba.

"Residential real property" shall mean any structure or portion thereof (including single family, multi-family and transient accommodations) used for the purpose of providing basic shelter for its occupants.

"Unlawful real estate practice" shall mean any act of commission or omission by any agent or owner which is herein declared to be a violation of this ordinance.

Section 3: Unlawful real estate practice - It shall be an unlawful real estate practice and unlawful for any agent or owner:

(a) To make any distinction, discrimination or restriction against any person in price, terms, conditions or privileges of any kind relating to the sale, rental, lease or occupancy of any residential real property, or in furnishing of any facilities or services in connection therewith, predicated upon race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin of the prospective or actual buyer, tenant, or occupant thereof.

(b) To publish, circulate, issue, or display, any communication, notice, advertisement, sign, or writing of any kind relating to the sale, rental or leasing of such real property predicated upon the race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin of any prospective buyer, lessee, or tenant.

(c) To refuse to sell, lease or rent real property for residential purposes because of the race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin of the proposed buyer or tenant.

(d) To discriminate or to participate in discrimination in connection with borrowing or lending money, guaranteeing loans, accepting mortgages or otherwise obtaining or making available funds for the purchase, acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, repair or maintenance of any residential real property because of the race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin of any person.

(e) To cheat, exploit, or overcharge any person for residential real property because of race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin of such person.

(f) To solicit for sale, lease or listing for sale or lease any residential real property on the grounds of false value due to the present or prospective entry into any neighborhood of any person or persons of any particular race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin.

(g) To distribute or cause to be distributed written material or statements designed to induce any owner of residential real property to sell or lease his property because of any present or prospective change in the composition of any neighborhood due to race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin of any person.

(h) To deliberately and knowingly refuse examination of residential real property to any person because of race, color, religion, sex, age, or national origin of such person.

Section 4: Enforcement - (a) Penalties - Any person or entity violating any provision of this ordinance shall be fined, upon conviction, not less than two dollars ($2.00) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and cost of court for each offense. Each day such violation continues shall constitute a separate offense.

(b) Complaints - Any person aggrieved in any manner by any violation of any provision of this ordinance may file a written complaint setting forth his grievance with the Mayor. Said complaint shall state the name and address of the complainant and of the person or entity against whom the complaint is brought, and shall also state the alleged facts surrounding the violation of this ordinance.

The Chief of Police is hereby fully authorized to immediately investigate such complaint thus filed. Upon completion of his investigation, the Chief of Police shall report his findings in writing to the Mayor who will at such time initiate appropriate legal or conciliatory action.

Approved the 28 day of August, 1989.

Views From THE PRESSBOX

By, Ricky Mularz, Editor

Gaynes Waters and I went up to Atlanta Saturday to catch the final two games of the Braves-Cubs series and got to see a bunch of runs scored as the Cubs took the first game 10-3 and the Braves took the final 8-5. Saturday night was "Bartles and James Night" and the Braves played like the two old men in the commercial as they made three errors in the first inning that led to six unearned runs, while Sunday the Braves knocked the cover off the ball and pounded out the win over the first place Cubs. There were over 42,000 on hand for Saturday night's game and another 25,000 in attendance Sunday, and while the majority of the fans sounded like Cubs fans, most were from the Atlanta area and just came out to cheer for a winning team. If the Braves would start winning they might sell the place out every game!

TIGERS IMPROVE TO 2-0 WITH EASY WIN OVER LOUISVILLE

The Elba Tigers claimed their second win of the young season and went 1-0 in Area 3 competition Friday night with an easy 48-6 win over the Louisville Red Devils. The win wasn't exciting to watch and the players were able to rest quite a bit as every single player dressed out to play; however, after a very tough win over Cottonwood in week #1 it was a game the Tigers needed to rest their injured and give the younger players a shot of confidence.

The Elba offense put 48 points on the scoreboard and could have scored two more touchdowns if not for fumbles down deep in Louisville territory. Reggie Horstead showed some speed on a 68 yard touchdown and went over the 100 yard mark in the game in only 5 carries, while Kevin Matthews again looked good passing and ran the option well, scoring a pair of touchdowns. Back up tailback Tim Caldwell again showed his speed as he gained 78 yards in the second half and had a 3 yard scoring run, giving the two Elba tailbacks over 200 yards combined. Not bad! The offensive line looked better, but still has a long way to go before the running attack will be able to be consistent, and after two games Elba has yet to establish its fullback in the middle. If the line will continue to improve the offense could be ready for its full stride by mid-season.

Over on defense, the Tigers set the pace for the rest of the night on the opening kickoff when Ronald McKinnon almost broke the Louisville runner in half and jarred the ball loose. The defense went to the ball well and really passed some licks, the way Elba teams are supposed to! About the only thing that I noticed that bothered me was the success Louisville had throwing the football to its tight-end. The receiver was open all night and Elba apparently was unconcerned. Oh, well.

The kicking game clicked on a punt return for a touchdown and blocked a pair of punts, but allowed Louisville to block a punt and two extra-point attempts. With Elba's speed it should have some big plays on kick returns; however, the Tigers will have to put in a little overtime work on their own kicks or they could get in trouble.

Looking back, I realize that the players didn't get fired up to play Louisville and many of the negatives were caused by a lack of concentration and mass substitutions and I also realize the 48-6 score pretty well sums it up. It was just your typical Elba-Louisville ballgame!

AREA TEAMS WIN THREE OF FOUR GAMES IN WEEK #2

Week #2 of the high school football season was a little kinder to the area teams as New Brockton, Kinston and Brantley all posted wins, while Zion Chapel lost, but showed signs of improvement. Here's a quick look back at week #2...

NEW BROCKTON was pushed into overtime, but survived to claim a hardfought 13-12 win over a very good Georgia squad. Coach Boutwell warned the Gamecock followers that the trip to Georgia might not be pleasant and he was right. The Gamecocks did show a lot of class by winning on the road and a win is a win, no matter what the score.

KINSTON used a strong running attack to post a 21-14 win over Wicksburg. The Bulldogs have a big line and some solid running backs and it was clear that Coach Trent Taylor was determined to keep it on the ground and let his backs do the work. The solid win should live up the Dogs.

ZION CHAPEL showed improvement and desire against Samson, but still came out on the short end of an 18-8 score. The Rebels floundered in the first half offensively, much like the opening week, but like in the opening week, went to the air in the second half and staged a rally. Maybe Coach Larry Stevenson will go to his passing attack earlier in weeks to come and air it out.

BRANTLEY got in the win column, but it wasn't easy as the Bulldogs edged Red Level 7-0. The Bulldogs got hot late in the season a year ago and won a game in the state playoffs, making everyone believe that another big season was on the way. After two games, it is obvious that Coach Ted Watson's team is working hard, but is still a long way from being a powerhouse.

OPENING WEEK UPSETS? WEEK #2 PROVIDES ANSWERS

The opening week of the season is always confusing because you never really know if the teams that won are all that good, or if the teams that lost are really that bad. Well, after watching what happened in week #2, things are beginning to clear up a bit. Here's what I saw...

6A - Defending state champ Vigor had to battle for its life before holding on to nip Montgomery Carver 6-0, while here in the county Enterprise came back down to earth in a hurry as Dothan handed the Cats an overtime loss 24-23. A surprise? Montgomery Lanier dumping Carroll, of Ozark, in the Eagles' own backyard!

5A - Yep, Opp must be for real! Coach Paul Woolley's Bobcats went up to Troy and clobbered Charles Henderson 31-8 to go 2-0 on the young season. Opp has posted two impressive wins in a row and may be the surprise team in the area. Another team that is off to a fast start is Andalusia, which whipped T.R. Miller 28-12, to go 2-0. Things are looking up over in our neighboring county!

4A - Pike County rolled past Shelby County 39-10 and after two games it looks like speedster Steven Coleman may be better than ever. Two very disappointed teams are Geneva and Daleville, both of whom are 2-0 after expecting good seasons. The season is young; however, and you can bet these two will taste victory soon.

3A - Luverne waltzed past 3A rival W.S. Neal 33-0 and is off to a fast start, having outscored its first two opponents 81-0, while Rehobeth came back down to earth with a thud as they got ripped by Slocomb 21-0 after opening up with a win.

The "No Problem" People

2A - Cottonwood looked impressive in its opener against Elba, but had to struggle last week to get past Dale County 9-6. It looks like Florida is on the way back up after taking its second straight win, this one being a 20-7 win over Straughn.

1A - Arizon may be the team to watch locally! The Purple Cats whipped Goshen 27-7 last week to go 2-0 and have been very impressive. Coffee Springs saw its losing streak reach 23 with a 34-8 loss to Long, while the time may have come for Dazier to realize it may be too small to play football. The Tigers got shelved 47-0 by McKenzie and now been out-scored 95-0 after only two games.

POLISH PROGNOSTICATOR SURVIVES WEEK #2 OF PICKINGS

Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator was yawning when he came into the office Monday morning and feeling a little down after going 21-7 with his pickings for the second week of the season. After two weeks, the Clipper's resident guesstert stands at 46-10, which is over 82%. Not bad, but a little shaky after a super start! Oh well, here are his picks for week #3...

ELBA VS. LUVERNE

When these two Tigers get together you can bet the fur will be flying! Elba has been less than impressive in claiming two wins, while up in Luverne they are convinced that this is the year after two blowouts. The folks in Luverne could be right; however, the home field advantage is pretty powerful in Elba and will be the difference!

ELBA 17 LUVERNE 13

NEW BROCKTON VS. W.S. NEAL

The Gamecocks will hit the road again this week for an encounter with the Eagles of W.S. Neal and you can bet Coach Boutwell's "Road Warriors" will be ready after getting a major scare last week in Georgia. The Eagles will be ready, but New Brockton will simply be too much!

Elba to host Luverne in Area 3 clash

If it was a wrestling match between two undefeated opponents inside a fenced area they'd call it a "steel cage match." When you put over 80 players and coaches inside a fenced in area and let 'em go at it it's more like a "war!"

The Elba Tigers and Luverne Tigers will go to war Friday night in Elba when the two undefeated 3A powers do battle with the Area 3 championship possibly on the line. Elba opened the season with a narrow 21-14 win over Cottonwood and last week whipped Louisville 48-6, while Luverne has run roughshod past Dozier 48-0 and W.S. Neal 33-0.

"Luverne is awfully strong this year," said Elba's Coach Mack Wood, "probably as good as they've been in all the years I've been here. They are real big and physical, have two huge offensive linemen, have two sets of running backs with speed and power and are quick on defense and really get after the ball. Luverne is loaded and I know they're looking forward to coming to Elba because they believe they can win."

"On offense they do basically the same stuff they've always done," added Wood. "They use split backs and like to run the inside belly, outside veer and option. They have used more of a power game in the first two games and have simply run over folks and they have the line and the backs to do it. Over on defense they still try to get under the offensive linemen and give their linebackers open shots at the ball carriers. Their defense is quick and very sound."

"If we are going to beat Luverne we'll have to play an outstanding game on both sides of the ball," stated Wood. "I don't know where we are on defense, I guess we'll find out Friday night. We have moved some folks around and think we've got everybody in the right spots. On offense we are young and inexperienced in the middle, but are getting better. Against Luverne we'll have to be able to move the football on offense and have a balanced attack. We'll need to put the ball in the air to keep their defense honest and our line will have to pick up their unusual defensive schemes. Our defense will have to play its best game. We'll have to be solid in every area, especially at linebacker and up front, and we'll have to make the big plays, but at the same time, be consistent."

"Luverne is an outstanding football team with a lot of confidence and it will be a tremendous challenge for our players to play them and claim a win," said Wood in closing.

When asked about Louisville, Coach Wood stated "I hope we improved a little and I know it was a good game because we won and got a chance to play a lot of folks. We didn't play real well at times, but did show improvement."

NOWHERE TO RUN! The Elba defense proved to be way to strong for the Louisville offense Friday night as they limited the Red Devils to only 4 yards rushing. Pictured above stopping a Red Devil runner for no gain are Gary Gilbert (71) and Audie Fudge (61), while Shane Blanton (40) closes in.

Tigers score early & often to smash Louisville 48-6

The Elba Tigers scored a touchdown on their first play from scrimmage Friday night and never looked back as they demolished the Louisville Red Devils 48-6, on a wet field at Elba's Miller Memorial Stadium.

The win upped the Tigers' record to 2-0, 1-0 in Area 3 play, while Louisville slipped to 0-2, 0-1 in Area competition.

Elba put the ball in play at the Louisville 32-yardline after stopping the Red Devils cold on their opening possession and got on the scoreboard immediately as on the first play from scrimmage quarterback Kevin Matthews lofted a pass to tight-end Jackie Stoudemire and the big receiver broke two tackles and rambled 32 yards into the endzone. Wade Hart added the extra-point and with 9:03 still left in the first quarter Elba was off and running with a quick 7-0 lead.

A bad snap on a Louisville punt attempt gave the ball to the Tigers at the Red Devil 17-yardline midway through the quarter and this time it took Elba four plays to reach paydirt!

Runs of seven yards by Reggie Horstead and Anthony Brooks moved the ball to the 3-yardline, and from there Kevin Matthews did the rest as he scored to add to the Tigers' lead. Wade Hart again hit the extra-point and Elba's lead was up to 14-0 with 5:38 left in the opening stanza.

Jackie Stoudemire broke through to block a punt on Louisville's next possession to give the Tigers the ball at the Red Devil 9-yardline, but this time the Tigers failed to cash in as on second down Elba fumbled at the Louisville 5-yardline and the Red Devils recovered to stop the threat.

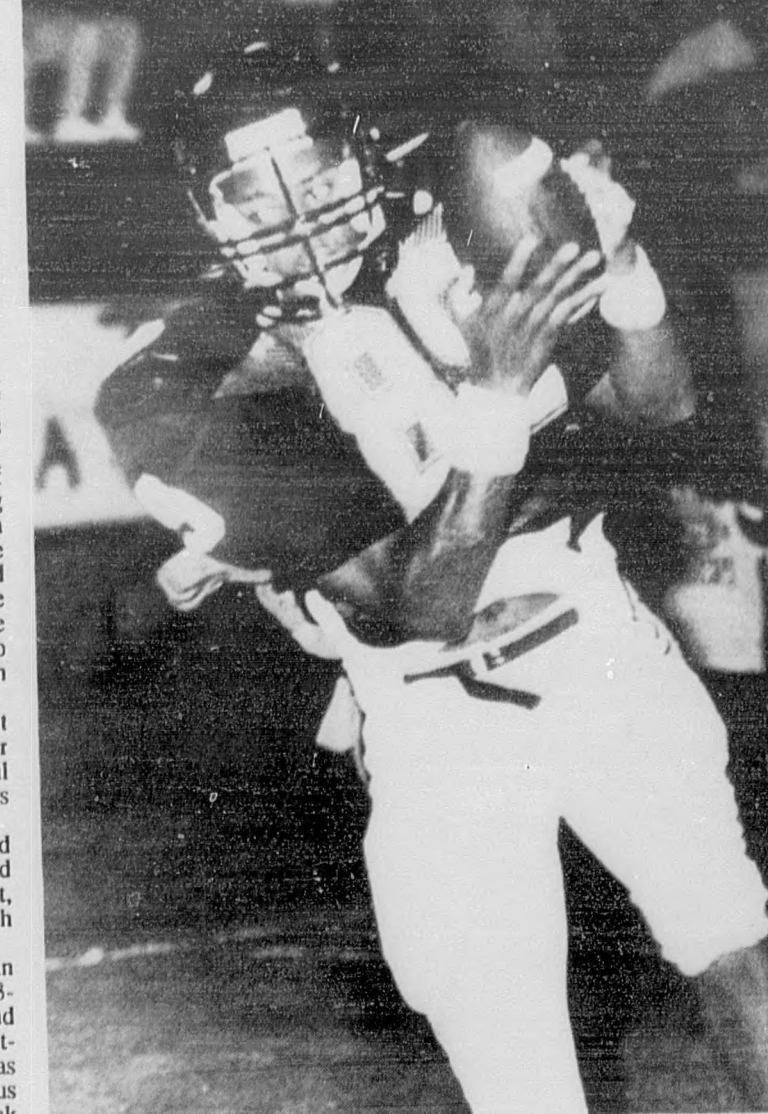

Louisville's good fortune didn't last long; however, as on the second play following the fumble the Red Devils lost the handle on the wet football and Elba's Marcus Kelley recovered to put the Tigers in business at the Louisville 20.

Two plays later Kevin Matthews scored on an 11-yard run, and after Matthews passed to Jackie Stoudemire on the two-point conversion, the Tigers owned a 22-0 advantage with 1:48 still left in the half.

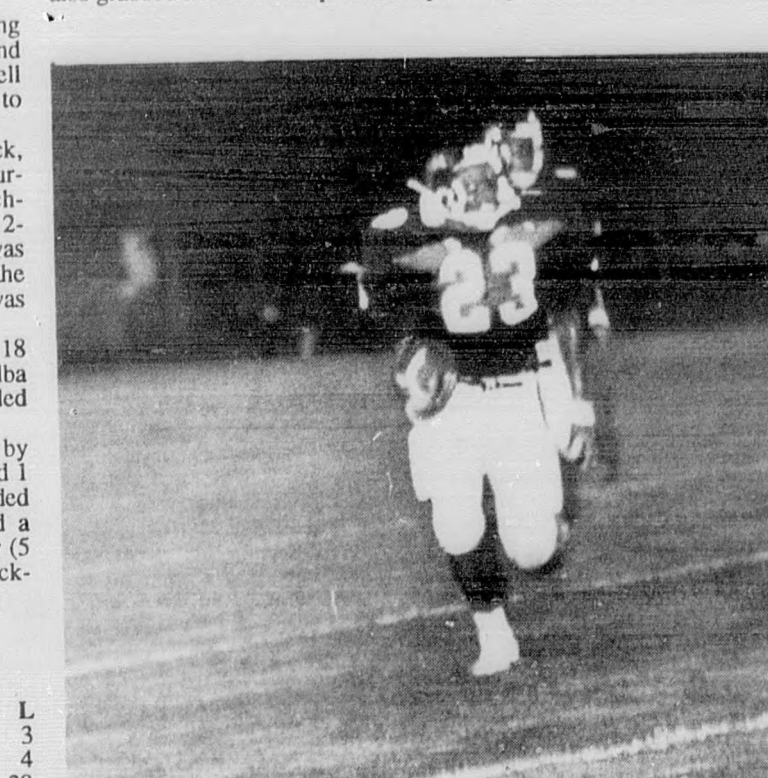

The two Area rivals swapped turnovers on their next possessions as Elba's Todd McCall intercepted a Red Devil pass and Louisville recovered an Elba fumble.

Kinston Bulldogs bite Wicksburg

BY JACKIE KILCREASE

The Kinston Bulldogs used the 1-2 punch of running backs Chris Austin and Marcus Cook Friday night to post an exciting 21-14 win over the Wicksburg Panthers, at Wicksburg.

The win evened the Bulldogs record at 1-1, while the Panthers fell to 0-2 with the loss. Neither team could dent the scoreboard in the opening stanza; however, the Bulldogs began a drive late in the first quarter that resulted in the first points of the game.

The touchdown came with 10:09 left in the second quarter when Chris Austin scored on a 1-yard plunge, and Randy Moore added the p.a.t. to put the Bulldogs ahead 7-0.

The lead proved to be short-lived as Wicksburg wasted little time in pulling even at 7-7.

The Panther touchdown came with 9:08 left in the half on a 72-yard run by Eric Hartigan and when Bart Mathis added the extra-point the score was knotted at 7-7.

The Panther score may have awakened the Wicksburg fans, but it also woke up the Bulldogs and the Kinston offense responded with a long drive that was climaxed when Scouty Edwards scored on an 18-yard jump. Moore's extra-point try was good and with 4:28 left in the half the Bulldogs were back on top 14-7.

The third quarter was a replay of the first as both teams moved the ball, but couldn't seem to find the path to the endzone.

Kinston put the ball in play late in the stanza and began a drive that would result in the Bulldogs' final, and winning score!

The touchdown came with 10:20 left in the game when Marcus Cook bulldozed over from a yard out and Randy Moore hit the important extra-point to give the Bulldogs a 21-7 advantage.

Wicksburg wasn't about to give up and closed the gap to 21-14 with 5:47 left in the game on an 8-yard pass from Tim Jones to David Creel and a p.a.t. by Mathis, but the Panthers could get no closer as Kinston held on for the big 21-14 win.

Chris Austin gained 91 yards on 18 carries to lead the Bulldog ground attack, while Marcus Cook added 80 yards on 12 carries. Eric Hartigan led Wicksburg with 118 yards on 10 carries, while Tim Jones added 83 yards on 11 carries.

Corky Matthews made 9 tackles and had 1 assist to spark the Kinston defense, while Lamar Chambliss added 7 tackles and 3 assists; Steve Wise had 7 tackles and 2 as-

Brantley defense shines in 7-0 win over Red Level

The Brantley Bulldogs turned in an outstanding defensive performance Friday night as they claimed a hard-fought 7-0 win over the visiting Red Level Tigers.

The win upped the Bulldogs record to 1-1, while Red Level saw its record dip to 0-2 with the loss. The defenses were in complete charge throughout the game, and it was the Bulldog defense that made the big play that led to the only points of the night.

The Brantley score was set up when the Bulldogs broke through to block a Red Level punt early in the game and recovered the block at the Tiger 10-yardline.

Derek Caldwell scored two plays later on a 2-yard scamper and the p.a.t. was true, giving the Bulldogs all the points they would need to take the 7-0 win.

BULLDOGS ON THE MOVE !!!!

Kinston quarterback Joe Martin (10), behind excellent pass protection, fires a pass downfield during the Bulldogs' win over Wicksburg. Martin hit only 1 pass during the game, but the Bulldogs used a solid ground attack to score three touchdowns.

Kinston running back Chris Austin (34) fights for yardage in the Bulldogs' 21-14 win over Wicksburg. Austin rushed for 91 yards in 18 carries to spark the Bulldogs to their first win of the season.

Kinston Coach Takes Pride in Background

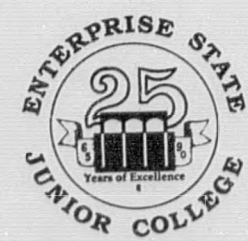

The physical education instructor's voice resonates easily above the din. Girls' volleyball teams and cheerleaders mill around during a photo session for the Kinston High School annual. The band practices in the background. Amelia Sessions Rhoades walks calmly through the noisy group and effortlessly projects her voice. In between shots and during a break in the music, Mrs. Rhoades smilingly takes time out to reminisce about college. She was among the first students to attend Enterprise State Junior College.

"I told my daughters when we passed Enterprise State the other day, to look at those trees out in front. We planted those trees," says Mrs. Rhoades. "When we started the college, classes were mostly held in downtown Enterprise in rooms over an old store. We took a lot of pride in it - even though we did not have the facilities. And when we moved to the large campus, we all pitched in and helped - it was like one big family."

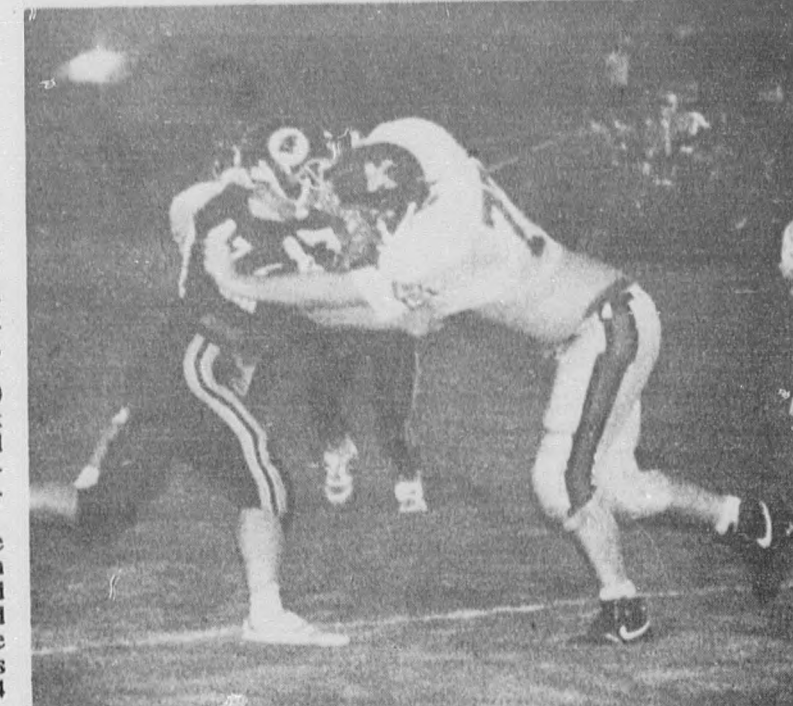

"The administration and faculty are what have made the college what it is today," Mrs. Rhoades shouts to be heard above the band. "My experience there made me aware of how dedicated you had to be as a coach. Back then Coach Daniels taught us. He led a professional life and he let me know that when I got out into a coaching position that I had to do the same thing. He set the example."

Now Mrs. Rhoades is setting the example. She teaches elementary and high school physical education. She coaches the girls' junior, junior varsity, and varsity volleyball teams. The varsity team was state runner-up in 1985, 1987, and 1988. She also coaches the girls' softball team; she instructs health classes; she sponsors the yearbook; and, she is a wife and mother of three.

Amelia Sessions Rhoades joins ESJC in celebrating the past in our silver anniversary. Come celebrate your future with ESJC when you register for classes this fall.

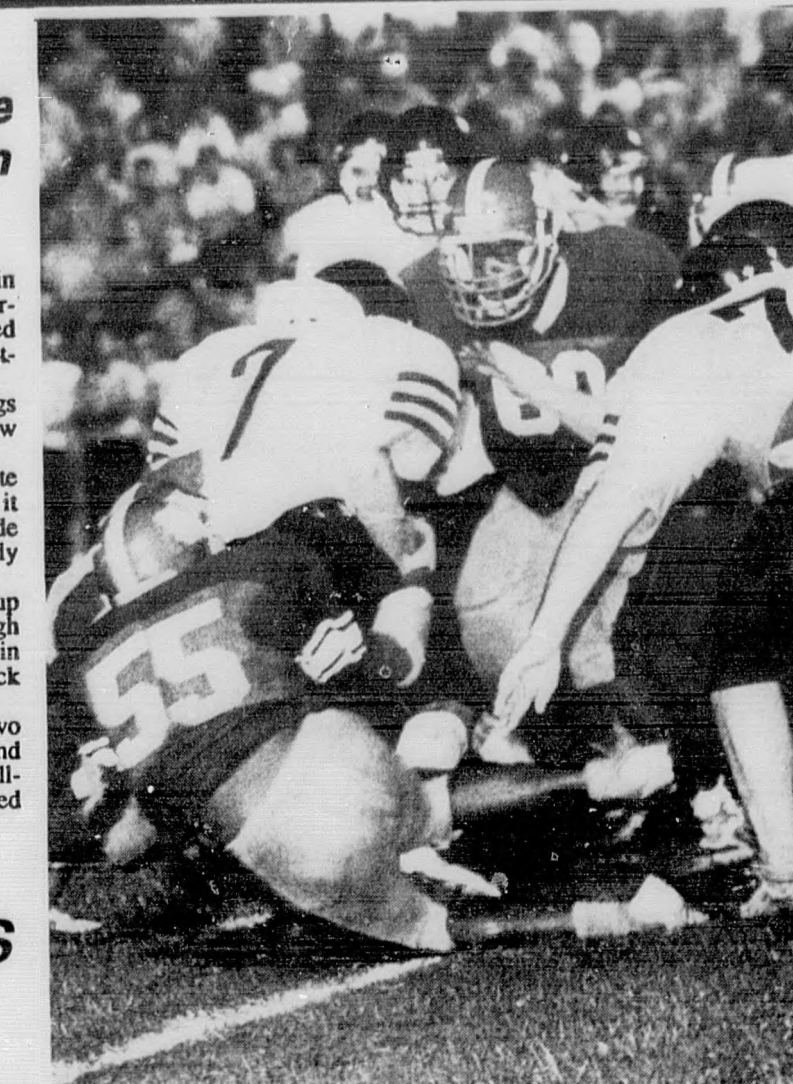

Register now! Fall quarter classes begin Sept. 18. Late registration continues through Sept. 20 for day classes and Sept. 21 for evening classes. Call 393-ESJC or 1-800-874-3399 for more information.

New Brockton running back Robert Kilow (22) eyes a hole in the Georgia defense during action in last week's 13-12 Gamecock win. The Gamecocks will be on the road again this week when they travel to W.S. Neal.

BY GREG BRUNSON

The New Brockton Gamecocks and Georgiana Panthers tied up Friday night in an old-fashioned defensive struggle, with the final result being an exciting 13-12 overtime win for the Gamecocks.

The Panthers took the ball on their first possession and made it look easy by marching 64 yards in only 7 plays. Chris Campbell capped the drive with a 2 yard plunge with 4:28 left in the first quarter.

Georgiana tried some trickery on the extra-point try as Torey Taylor took the snap on a fake kick, but Taylor was brought down short of the endzone, leaving the score at 6-0.

After one exchange of punts, New Brockton put together a 9 play drive that ended in a fumble recovered by Lindsey Gandy for the Panthers.

Later in the quarter, Robert Kilow caused a fumble that was recovered by the Gamecocks' Tripp Marshall at the Panther 44-yardline.

On second down from the 39, Matt Rodgers threw a pass to Robert Kilow, who broke a tackle at the 17 and raced into the endzone for a score with only 1:15 left to play in the first half. George Till broke through to block the William Moguel extra-point try as the score remained tied at 6-6.

The second half was a real defensive battle with neither team moving the ball until the gamecocks put together a drive late in the third quarter.

The Gamecocks moved from their own 19-yardline to the Panther 29 during the drive, which ended when Georgiana's Lerone Crittenden intercepted a Matt Rodgers pass at the 12-yardline.

The Gamecocks had another chance to win the game in regulation as Lamar Goosby recovered a fumble caused by a terrific hit put on by William Moguel late in the fourth quarter. New Brockton moved down to the 21-yardline on a 28-yard pass from Rodgers to Rex Caldwell. The Panther defense held; however, forcing a field goal attempt as the clock ran down. The field goal try failed and at the end of regulation the score was still knotted at 6-6.

The overtime opened with the gamecocks being penalized five yards for motion. Three carries by Robert Kilow netted the needed 15 yards and the touchdown came on a 2-yard burst. Moguel added the extra-point and New Brockton had the lead at 13-6.

The Panthers wasted no time as they scored on the first play on a 10-yard pass from Crittenden to Lindsey Gandy. Georgiana decided to go for the win, but the move backfired, as William Moguel broke through the line as Crittenden looked for a receiver and knocked the quarterback to the dirt as the pass fell harmlessly at the 5-yardline and the Gamecocks claimed the 13-12 win.

Robert Kilow was the game's leading rusher with 78 yards on 19 carries and one reception for 39 yards.

Rebels fall to Samson 18-8

BY RONNY SHIVER

The Zion Chapel Rebels saw a fourth quarter rally fall short Friday night as they fell to the Samson Tigers 18-8, in Samson.

The loss left the Rebels with an 0-2 record, while Samson improved its mark to 2-2 with the win.

Zion Chapel got the game's first break when it recovered a Samson fumble at the Rebel 44-yardline on the third play of the game and it looked like the Rebels might cash in on the chance as they moved quickly to a first down at the Tiger 28.

Zion Chapel got as close as the Samson 25, but misfired on two passes and saw the scoring opportunity go by the board.

Samson began a drive off its own on the ensuing possession and in 10 plays moved all the way down to the Zion Chapel 3-yardline. The Tigers also left without a score; however, as the Rebel defense jarred the ball loose and Zion Chapel recovered the fumble at the 31.

Samson got the ball back at the Rebel 37 following a punt and this time made it to the endzone, with the touchdown coming on a 15-yard pass from Trent Owens. The extra-point attempt failed, but with 5:15 left in the half the Tigers were ahead to stay at 6-0.

Samson put the ball in play at its 37-yardline following a Zion Chapel punt early in the third quarter and marched down to the Rebel 11-yardline, only to see the Rebel defense again rise to the challenge and turn the Tigers back on downs.

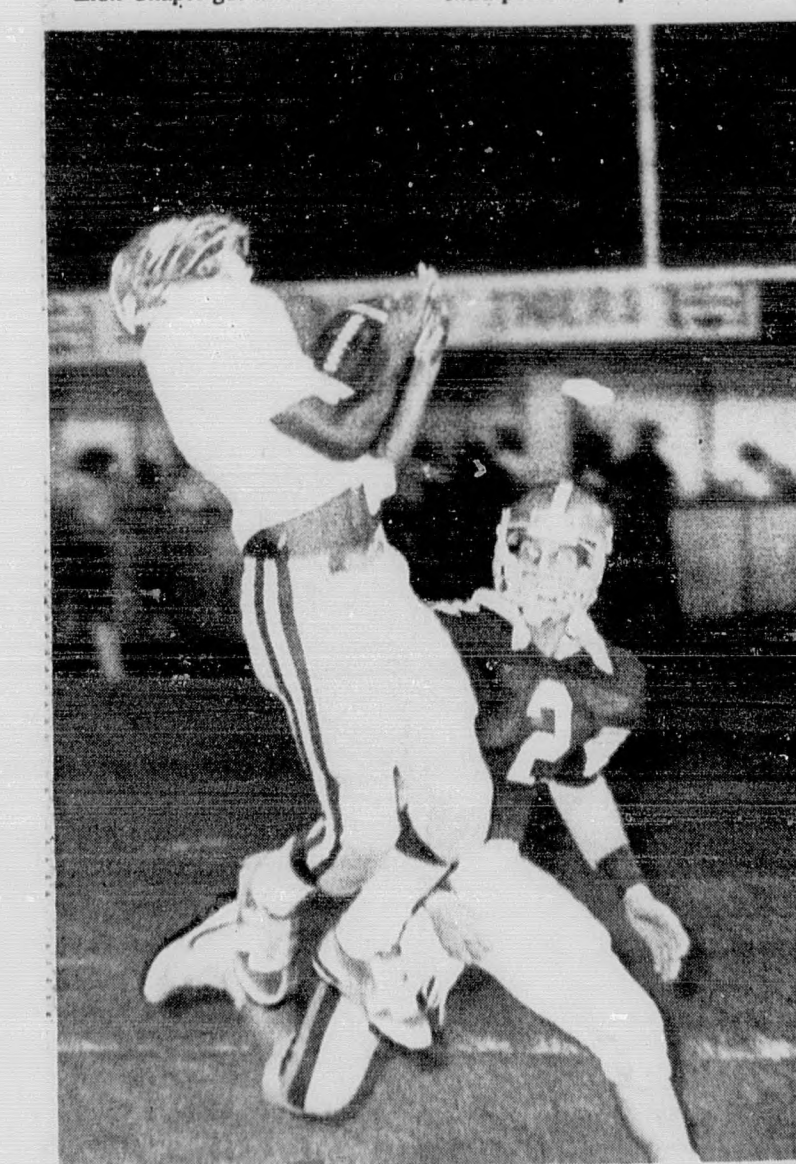

The Rebel offense attempted to go to the airways following the defensive stand and it proved to be a mistake as on second down Shane Owens picked off a Jeremy Law pass and sprinted 36 yards for a touchdown! A two-point run failed, but with 10:01 left in the game the Tigers owned a big 12-0 lead.

The Rebels were down, but not about to quit, and came right back following the Samson touchdown to score and chop the lead to 12-8!

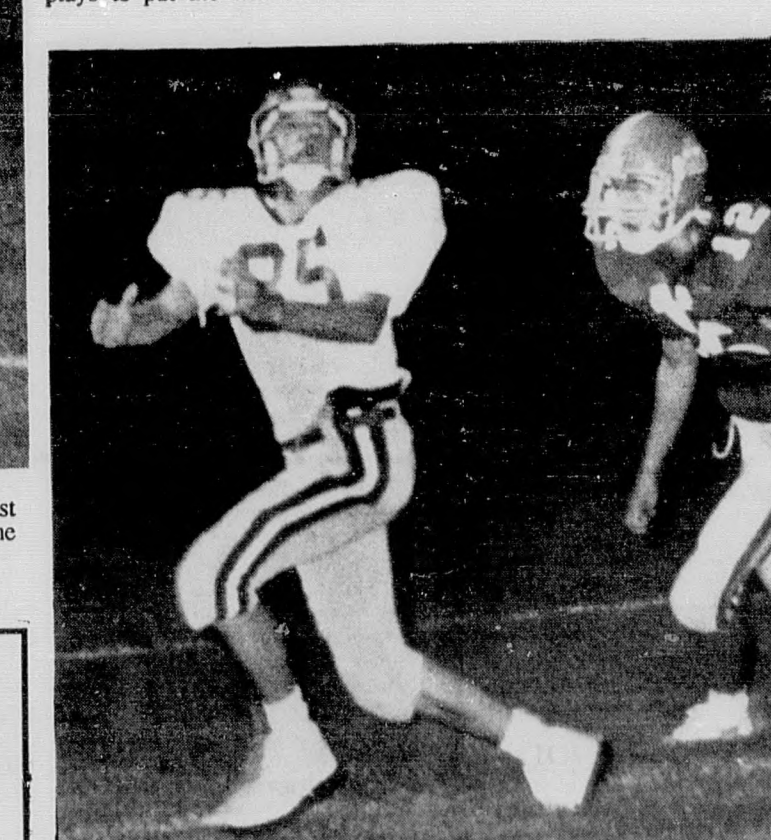

The passing combination of Jeremy Law to Chris Dewberry sparked the drive as the duo clicked on three completions for a total of 47 yards, while the touchdown came when Law tossed a 6-yard scoring pass to Calvin Newson. Law passed for the two-point try and with 6:38 left on the clock the Rebels were right back in the hunt as they trailed only 12-8.

The fired up Rebel defense stopped Samson cold on the ensuing possession and the Rebels moved quickly to the Tiger 29-yardline on a pass from Law to Newson; however, the Rebels were penalized for offensive pass interference on the play and pushed back all the way to the Zion Chapel 24-yardline.

Samson got the ball back late in the game and drove 53 yards in 7 plays to put the win on ice. The Zion Chapel's Calvin Newson (6) goes high to pull down a pass in last week's 18-8 loss to Samson. Newson scored the Rebels' only score of the night on a reception.

Rebel receiver Chris Dewberry (85) looks back for a pass during last week's battle with Samson. Dewberry caught 4 passes in the 18-8 loss.

Comes the Dawn
After a while you learn the subtle
Difference between holding a hand
and changing a soul.

And you learn that love doesn't mean leaning and company doesn't mean security.

And you begin to understand that
kisses aren't contracts and presents
aren't promises.

And you begin to accept your defects with your head held high and
your eyes open.

With grace, not the grief of a child
you learn to build your ground on today because tomorrow's roads are too uncertain for plans, and the future
has a way of falling down in mid-flight.

After a while, you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too much.
So you plant your own garden and decorate your own soul, instead of waiting for someone to bring you
flowers, and you learn that you really can endure, that you really are strong and you really do have worth.

And you learn - and learn - and learn with every goodbye you learn.

Lawford Completes Reserve Nursing Course

Air Force Reserve 2nd Lt. Vala-ria A. Oggs has graduated from the U.S. Air Force School of Aerospace Medicine's flight nurse course at Brooks Air Force Base, Texas.

Graduates of the course have been trained for duty as a member of a medical crew in aeromedical evacuation units. Training included basic principles of aerospace medicine, basic sciences, and special techniques necessary for the safe and efficient transportation of patients by air.

Oggs is the daughter of William A. and Ibell W. Oggs of Elba. She is a 1980 graduate of Elba High School and received an associate degree from Wallace Community College in Dothan in 1984.

Lauren Rose Hooks
Celebrates 2nd Birthday
Lauren Rose Hooks, Claremont,

and Arlene Hooks), celebrated her second birthday with a birthday party at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Mary A. Hooks, Elba.
Those enjoying the party (along with the grandparents) were: Evonne, Darnell and Agn Raymon, Michael and Matt Hooks, and Minnie Coleman.

The Hooks visited relatives in Elba, Opy and Andalusia and took a trip to the beach in Panama City, Fla.

Lauren Rose thanked her Grandma Alice for a wonderful party and vacation.

neral of Mr. Ardis Williams.

Mrs. Lillie Ralls, Midland City,
AL, visited Mrs. Catham Gulley and Mrs. Bessie Owens, Bobby Gulley, Evelyn and Mason, Grover and Eria Belcher, all of Elba, Saturday evening, September 2.

Sgt. Warren Belcher, Keeler AFB, Miss., visited Grover and Eria Belcher (his parents) Ernestine
Kelley and family, Evelyn Gulley and family, all of Elba, and Milton Belcher and family, Montgomery, during the Labor Day weekend.

Comes the Dawn
After a while you learn the subtle
Difference between holding a hand
and changing a soul.

And you learn that love doesn't
mean leaning and company doesn't mean security.

And you begin to understand that
kisses aren't contracts and presents
aren't promises.

And you begin to accept your defects with your head held high and
your eyes open.

With grace, not the grief of a child
you learn to build your ground on today because tomorrow's roads are
too uncertain for plans, and the future
has a way of falling down in mid-flight.

After a while, you learn that even
sunshine burns if you get too much.
So you plant your own garden and
decorate your own soul, instead of
waiting for someone to bring you
flowers, and you learn that you
really can endure, that you really
are strong and you really do have worth.

And you learn - and learn - and
learn with every goodbye you learn.

China Cabinet

Classic 18th century styling gives this dining room collection the distinctive look of luxury. Made of maple solids and engraved wood products with rich, cherry engraved finish the affordable Newberry II has all the special details so desirable in dining rooms today. Notice the broken pediment top, the crisp dentil moldings, the fluted pilasters and the attractive brass hardware found on the china. MAYOR MOORE ADDRESSES COMMISSION...Elba mayor Fred Moore addressed the Coffee County Commission at Monday's meeting and asked the commissioners not to allow Elba to "dry up" by moving county offices to Enterprise.

Commission refuses to hear Enterprise jail offer

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, Sept. 11, at the courthouse in Elba and after much discussion among commissioners voted 4-3 not to meet with Enterprise city officials to discuss the city's proposed plan to build a new county jail.

Commission chairman Billy Eagerton told the commissioners that he had met with Enterprise city officials since the last regular meeting of the commission and had agreed for the entire commission to meet with the city officials later on Monday to discuss the city's proposal.

Comm. Sid Averett made a motion that the commission attend the meeting and it was seconded by Comm. Bill Faulk. However, it was obvious that the meeting was not a popular issue among all the commissioners and those opposed made their feelings clear.

"I have lost sleep worrying about what is best for Coffee County," stated Comm. Eugene Bradley. "In recent days I have talked with many of the citizens in my district and across Coffee County and have decided that many people in the county are opposed to building a jail in Enterprise. I represent the people in my district and feel that it will be best for all of Coffee County if the commission not accept the proposal from Enterprise."

Comm. Damascus Crittenden echoed Bradley's sentiments and stated "As far as I am concerned, the issue is over! The location and financing for the county jail has been decided by this commission already. If the commissioners will take their heads out of the papers and use their ears to listen to the voice of the people, they will realize what is best."

Comm. Robert Stephens, who fought an unsuccessful battle to keep the jail in Elba, said "This commission has made much progress in all areas for the citizens of Coffee County. I know that we have different opinions and beliefs and that we have all read that Enterprise wants to give the county a jail for free. That is not true! The taxpayers of Coffee County are going to pay for a new jail no matter where it is built."

"I urge for the commission to stand above politics," added Stephens, "and not to let money control its vote."

Comm. Jim Dubose, another staunch opponent of moving the jail and the implementation of a sales tax to finance construction of a new jail, stated "I don't like what is happening in Coffee County. I think that self-serving interest is tearing our county apart! I would like to see all the city officials in our county come together and sit down with the commission to reach an agreement on what is best for this county."

"I am not anti-Enterprise," declared Dubose, "and I am tickled to death with the growth and prosperity the city is enjoying. However, we must do what is best for all of the county and that is what I will vote to do."

Comm. Bill Faulk asked "If we put on a sales tax, what do we get out of it?"

"The only thing we can get out of it will be a new jail," said Faulk, "and Enterprise has the money on hand to build the jail and either way the county gets a jail. I too resent the fact that Enterprise put on a sales tax the way it did; however, I can't see what difference three miles makes as far as where the jail is built. We don't even know if we can legally collect the tax."

Comm. Sid Averett commented "It is hard for me to realize how a group of men have let the battle between north and south Coffee County cost the county this much money. It is clearly a battle between Elba and Enterprise!"

Averett, Faulk and Eagerton all voted to meet with the Enterprise officials, while the motion died when Stephens, Bradley, Dubose and Crittenden all cast dissenting votes.

Comm. Stephens asked the commission, in a show of unity, to reaffirm its plans to build a new county jail in New Brockton and to use a one-half cent sales tax to finance the construction.

The vote went 5-2, with only Eagerton joining the four commissioners who opposed the Enterprise meeting. The meeting, which began at 9:00 a.m., got off to anything but a slow start as Elba's Mayor Fred Moore was the commission's first visitor and pleaded with the commission to "help save Elba."

"I thought the jail issue was settled," said Mayor Moore. "But apparently it is anything but. I would like the commission to remember that it has already decided to build a new health department in Enterprise and gave Elba absolutely no consideration in the matter. Now it might build a new county jail in Enterprise because of a so-called problem that might exist in collecting the one-half cent sales tax that will be used to build the jail."

"There is no problem in collecting the sales tax," declared Moore. "The judge in the case has stated he would help the county collect the tax, if necessary."

"It is true that Enterprise is bigger than Elba," added Moore, "but that shouldn't be a factor in the decision where to build the jail. If you go only by size, why don't we move the state capital to Birmingham, it's bigger than Montgomery."

"Enterprise passed a sales tax for leverage to get the jail," stated Moore, "and I feel the commission owes it to the people of Coffee County not to play politics, but to be fair."

Moore pointed out that Elba paid $2,000-2,500 monthly to keep its fire department and rescue squad in operation and said "We serve all of the county without any help from the commission and we'll continue to do so."

"Elba is the county seat," added Mayor Moore, "and I feel the new jail should be built here. Enterprise is not offering the county anything. Help save Elba. I know we're small, but don't let Elba simply dry up."

Before leaving, Mayor Moore questioned Commission chairman Billy Eagerton and told Eagerton that rumors around the county suggested that Eagerton had changed his support from New Brockton to Enterprise because of plans to seek countywide office.

Eagerton refused to address the rumor, but did say that he would support any decision the commission made on a site for the jail.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the commission:

• Heard Tony Aluri urge the commission to continue its work to get additional rural water systems in the county;

• Was told by county engineer Mark Pool that the engineer's office would work with the Sheriff's Dept.

New radio system to unite all areas of Coffee County

The communications between members of the Coffee County Firefighters Association has improved dramatically in recent weeks with the installation of a new two-way radio and repeater system donated by the Alabama Forestry Commission.

The new system was installed on the 1,040-foot tall WKMX tower, located west of New Brockton, and will eliminate "brown-out spots," which are areas of the county where radio signals sometimes fail.

The antenna for the repeater was installed at the 400-foot point of the tower, which stands 1,400 feet above sea level.

According to Wayne Roberts, county officer with the Forestry Commission, emergency calls will be received by the police departments in Elba and Enterprise and dispatched to the appropriate fire department in the county.

The system is operational in Enterprise at the present time and will be operational in Elba in only a matter of days.

Coffee County Sheriff Brice Paul stated the communication system will extend area firefighting coverage to natural disasters, chemical spills and any other kind of natural emergency.

Elba council discusses plans to lease old Gunter-Dunn building

The monthly bills facing the Elba City Council Monday evening were the highest of the year, according to Mayor Fred Moore as he was presenting them for approval.

Moore told council members he and the city employees were doing everything possible to keep the bills down, but sometimes it just can't be done.

He explained that there were more repairs on small equipment than any month this year. Added to this was $990 for swimming pool chemicals; $893 for telephone; $669 for parts to repair the big loader; $528 for asphalt; $747 for tires and $6,581 for gasoline.

Moore explained that the telephone bills were not from abusive use of long distance, but were due to the numerous telephones installed in city facilities. He said that something less than $200 was on long distance calls.

Total bills for the month were $15,421.23. They were approved for payment by the council.

The council heard a report from Council member Bill Brunson on a zoning board hearing last week. The board heard a request from Marion Brunson for change from an R-4 to an MH-1 to allow placement of a mobile home park on property he owns on the Old Samson Road.

Brunson reported that the hearing had been advertised and there were no objections at the hearing.

The city council accepted the recommendation of the zoning board and approved the zoning change.

Ken English was present and held a short discussion with the council on his proposal to renovate the old Gunter-Dunn building. He explained that he arrived in town too late to pick up copies of his proposal from the attorney's office.

Mayor Fred Moore expressed opposition to selling the property outright without some assurance the necessary improvements would be made, bringing the building up to minimum standards.

Council members verbally agreed to consider a plan allowing English two years to bring the building up to standards under a lease plan. It will be presented to the council for official approval at a future meeting.

Police Chief Freddie Hanchey reported that during the past two weeks the police had responded to 123 complaints including eight traffic accidents; 17 citations including 2 for DUI. There have been 12 criminal arrests.

During this same period the animal control officer has picked up 14 dogs. Three of these were returned to their owners and one was sold.

"We are doing everything possible to keep the bills down," Mayor Moore said.

Council member Eddie Vaughan requested the council set October 7 for a citywide clean-up day. He wants to insure the community is clean for homecoming on October 13.

According to Vaughan, a large crowd is expected to be in Elba for this event, as extra efforts are being made as part of the Alabama Reunion.

Council member Bill Brunson suggested the mayor be authorized to appoint an airport advisory committee to report at a later date with suggestions for needs at the airport.

He noted they may look into the need for additional T-hangers, routine maintenance and repairs and general help for the airport. This was approved by the council.

Lime disease reported locally

A case of "Lime Disease" was reported in Coffee County last week and while the victim is reported to be well on his way to recovery, Elba physician Dr. Henry Cochran warned that the disease can be deadly.

Dr. Cochran reported that the disease, which is spread by ticks, can be cured without harmful side effects, if discovered quickly. However, the local physician stated that the disease can be fatal if not treated.

The case reported involved a 17-year-old male living in the Jack

Community and was diagnosed promptly.

Dr. Cochran stated that persons working in grassy areas should be properly clothed and use an insect repellent with a high concentration of DEET.

The first symptom of the tick bite is a rash which resembles a bulls-eye that will spread across the body.

Anyone being bitten by a tick should remove it with forceps by grasping the tick's head and pulling it out completely, or by seeking medical attention.

NSIC reports six-month earnings

National Security Insurance Company has reported net earnings for the six months ending June 30, 1989 of $1,685,783, or $2.15 per share.

The results compared with a net earning of $1,888,023, or $1.86 per share, for the six month period during 1988.

Earnings in the second quarter of 1989 were down $433,968, with tornado damage of approximately $1 million causing most of the drop.

Mr. J.R. Brunson, president, said "Earnings were off to a great start in the first quarter, but the tornado damage of $1 million in the second quarter dampened the excellent beginning. However, the 228,000 shares of treasury stock the company purchased in late 1988 reduced outstanding shares in 1989, creating larger earnings per share in 1989 than in 1988."
